

I am writing to voice my opposition concerning the consumer bankers association's attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. There should not be an exemption for anyone, including those with whom you currently have a business relationship.